

Task:

Develop a storyboard of the scene below. Before you start working on your storyboard you should think about the characteristics of the scene, e.g. mood, style/genre, emotions you want to communicate, the messages you want to convey. Write a brief concept paper (about 250 words).

Your scene should include the following aspects:

- A student who is entering the school building
- Expressions of emotions and thoughts
- Sheets of paper flying through the air (chaos)
- A conversation (monologue/dialogue)
- One person leaving the classroom
